School of Education
Overview: 10 to 10:30 a.m. – Oliver Hall, Room 4084

The VCU School of Education has five undergraduate degree programs that prepare students for teaching careers in early childhood education, elementary education, health and physical education, and special education.

As a school committed to learning, we also offer a bachelor's degree in human and organizational development, a key corporate and nonprofit degree program in these ever-changing times across all industries. If you are passionate about education and making an impact in our communities, join us to find out more about our undergraduate programs.

Student panel: 10:30 to 11 a.m. – Oliver Hall, Room 4084

Connect with some of our students to hear about their School of Education experience.

Breakout sessions: 11 to 11:30 a.m.

Please attend one of the breakout sessions below.

B.S.Ed. in Early Childhood and Elementary Education and Teaching, Oliver Hall, Room 4084

Prepares students for roles as teachers of young children in schools, grades K–6 and community preschool settings. If you want to build a foundation of excitement in education for young children, help build their character and instill a lifelong love of learning, join our breakout session.

B.S.Ed. in Health and Physical Education, Oliver Hall, Room 4068

Prepares students to serve as licensed health and physical education teachers in PK–12 schools and leaders in community-based settings. This is for you if you want to change the next generation's attitude about fitness and be a health and wellness resource in schools and communities.

Special Education and Teaching (B.S.Ed. and M.Ed. program options), Oliver Hall, Room 2124

Prepares students to serve as licensed special education teachers in K–12 schools. This is for you if you are an advocate and you are passionate about giving to others so that they can succeed.

M.T. for secondary teaching majors and M.Ed. in Counselor Education, Oliver Hall, Room 2122

For students who are interested in teaching secondary English, history/social studies, biology, chemistry, earth science, mathematics or physics, we will explore the process of completing your undergraduate program through the College of Humanities and Sciences and applying to complete your licensure requirements through your M.T. program.

ACE-IT Program, Oliver Hall, Room 4084B

ACE-IT provides students with intellectual and developmental disabilities access to college that they would not have otherwise. Come learn more about our inclusive and innovative program. This is a great program for students interested in special education and teaching.

RTR Residency Program, Oliver Hall, Room 2125

RTR is a yearlong teacher residency program for future teachers to receive financial and career support while serving students in high-needs schools. If you want to teach for change, learn more about RTR.

Optional Tour of Oliver Hall: 11:45 a.m. to 12:15 p.m., Room 2087

Meet School of Education staff outside of the Future Student Suite for a brief tour of Oliver Hall.

Special Interest Sessions, 12:30 to 2:30 p.m.

Applying for Admission: Understanding the Process
University Student Commons Theater, 1 to 1:30 p.m. and 2 to 2:30 p.m.

Find out what VCU looks for in its applicants and how to apply for admission in this special session led by the Office of Admissions. We will review the required materials and deadlines for VCU’s fall and spring freshman applications and discuss the Common Application process for first-time freshman applicants.

Student Financial Management Center: Solving the Financial Aid Puzzle
Academic Learning Commons, Room 1107, 1 to 1:30 p.m. and 2 to 2:30 p.m.

The Student Financial Management Center will discuss how to apply for financial aid, the different types of financial aid, and determining student eligibility for scholarships, grants and loans for VCU students.

Study Abroad and Global Learning: Expand Your Horizons
University Student Commons, SGA Senate Room, 1 to 1:30 p.m. and 1:30 to 2 p.m.

Explore one of the most rewarding opportunities available to VCU students in this special information session about studying abroad and other on-campus Global Learning opportunities. Representatives from the Global Learning team will present opportunities on how to get funding and college credit while studying, interning or conducting research in places like Australia, South Korea, Argentina, Spain, Italy and many more, anywhere from one week to one academic year. You’ll also learn about opportunities to engage with VCU’s international community here on campus through program offerings such as Global Cafes, Conversation Partners, the Peace Corps Prep Certificate Program and others.

Transferring to VCU: Understanding the Process
University Student Commons Theater, 1:30 to 2 p.m.

Find out how to make a seamless transition to VCU, whether you are applying from the Virginia Community College System or another four-year institution. A representative from the Office of Admissions will go over the required materials and deadlines for transfer students who want to become VCU Rams this spring or fall.

VCU Honors College and Guaranteed Admission: Explore the Possibilities
University Student Commons, Commonwealth Ballroom, 1 to 2 p.m.

In addition to smaller classes and an expanded curriculum built around the idea of community building, VCU Honors College students can apply for Honors-only scholarships, study abroad opportunities and housing. For exceptionally qualified high school students, the Honors College also offers Guaranteed Admission Programs into a number of VCU’s professional programs, including medicine, dentistry and other health sciences. These programs allow students to enroll directly in one of our competitive undergraduate or graduate programs while or after earning their bachelor’s degrees. Hear from current students and learn more about applying for these opportunities, and all the benefits of joining a community of dedicated scholars, in this special information session.

Pre-Professional Health Career Advising Tracks
University Student Commons, Commonwealth Ballroom, 2 to 2:30 p.m.

VCU offers pre-professional health career advising tracks to students seeking competitive admission into professional programs after they graduate with an undergraduate degree. *These are not majors or minors. Students can declare a track in the following areas:

- Pre-Dentistry
- Pre-Medicine
- Pre-Occupational therapy
- Pre-Optometry
- Pre-Pharmacy
- Pre-Physical therapy
- Pre-Physician assistant
- Pre-Veterinary medicine
Afternoon opportunities (cont’d)

Tours
Monroe Park Campus: 11:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.
Enjoy a walking tour through VCU’s Monroe Park campus. Visit new facilities and historic buildings, see residence halls, and tour campus resources such as Cary Street Gym and Shafer Dining Hall. Tours depart from the University Student Commons lobby approximately every 15 minutes, with the last tour leaving at 2:15 p.m.

RecWell Cary Street Gym: 11 a.m. to 1:45 p.m., 101 S. Linden St.
Take a comprehensive guided tour of our Cary Street Gym, which features many amenities, such as two heated indoor pools, a whirlpool spa, a rock-climbing wall, an 18,000-square-foot fitness center, a four-court gymnasium, an indoor running track, racquetball courts, an indoor artificial turf multi-activity center and more. Tours will be hosted by RecWell staff members and will begin in the main lobby at the gym’s Linden Street entrance, with the final tour of the day beginning at 1:45 p.m. Tours will take approximately 15 minutes.

James Branch Cabell Library tours: 11 a.m., noon, 1 p.m. and 2 p.m.
Join VCU Libraries staff on a 20-minute tour of Cabell Library, THE campus center for creative work and collaboration. Tours leave from just inside the main entrance, at the Fall Line, a commissioned piece of sculpture that is also a gathering spot and bench. You’ll see what a modern 21st-century academic library has to offer — room for private and group study, a makerspace with state-of-the-art equipment and software, a large Starbucks cafe, and spaces to study, collaborate, discover, create and conduct research. On the front of the building, the two-story-tall Cabell Screen showcases art by students, faculty and community creators.

Stop By for a Visit
Shift Retail Lab: noon to 2 p.m., 1235 W. Broad St. (across from Siegel Center)
As the newest offering from the da Vinci Center for Innovation, the Shift Retail Lab serves VCU students and alumni by providing an important space for student entrepreneurs to test their ideas through sales and customer feedback. The products and services at Shift vary from those ready to buy to projects that need a little help. Shift provides an alternative type of retail where customers take an active part in developing ideas into successful products and services ready to go out to market. Exactly as the name implies, it is a lab for testing entrepreneurial concepts.

Residence Hall information: 11 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.
Prospective students and their guests can stop by Gladding Residence Center. Staff will offer short presentations every 15 minutes and answer questions, show the lobby and common area space, and share details about living in on-campus housing at VCU. General information on freshman residence halls and the assignments process will be available as well.

Interdisciplinary Studies Open House: Harris Hall, Room 5116, Focused Inquiry Learning Lounge, 1 to 3 p.m.
Learn about the Interdisciplinary Studies Program, which allows students to combine minors, certificates and coursework from across the University to create their own, individualized degrees. Come meet our leadership, faculty and advisors and begin discussing a unique path that aligns with your personal goals, interests and passions.

Office of Multicultural Student Affairs
University Student Commons, second floor, 11 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.
We offer diversity, inclusion and social justice dialogues, presentations and workshops, cultural heritage month events, mentorship and leadership engagement opportunities, identity-based discussion groups, and diversity and inclusion living-learning floors.
VCU Open House Shuttle
9 a.m. to 3:15 p.m.
Take the VCU Open House shuttle from the Welcome Center to Snead Hall and the University Student Commons. The shuttle runs from each location every 15 minutes. Look for the signs!
