Afternoon opportunities

1 to 2 p.m.
The Honors College and Guaranteed Admission Programs, University Student Commons, Commons Theater
Participate in a conversation with Honors College Dean Scott Breuninger, featuring a panel of current VCU Honors Ambassadors sharing firsthand student experiences. Explore the benefits and opportunities of joining the Honors College in this discussion. Students accepted into or interested in applying to the Honors College are welcome and encouraged to attend.

1 to 1:30 p.m.
Study Abroad and Global Learning: Connect with Cultures and Communities, University Student Commons, Richmond Salon II
Explore one of the most rewarding opportunities available to VCU students in this special information session. The Global Education Office will discuss opportunities for VCU students to gain global learning experiences on and off campus through study abroad, virtual global learning and local global programs such as VCU’s Peace Corps Prep certificate and more.

1 to 2:30 p.m.
Interdisciplinary Studies Open House, Harris Hall 5116
Learn about the Interdisciplinary Studies Program, which allows students to combine minors, certificates and coursework from across the University to create their own, individualized degree. Come meet our leadership, faculty and advisors and begin discussing a unique path that aligns with your personal goals, interests and passions!

1:30 to 2 p.m.
Summer Studies and Summer Scholars, University Student Commons, Richmond Salon I
Too excited about attending VCU to wait until fall? Ready to jump-start your college career? If you answered “yes” to either of these questions, you should join other students interested in attending VCU Summer Studies. This session will help you explore your summer options. Choose from numerous engaging courses that will count toward your degree, or take part in Summer Scholars, a five-week residential academic program designed just for you!

2 to 2:30 p.m.
AP, IB, Dual Enrollment: How They Translate Into College Credit, University Student Commons, Commons Theater
Many high school students participate in Advanced Placement (AP), International Baccalaureate (IB) and Dual Enrollment opportunities during high school. Now let us help you understand how those exams and courses can translate into college credit. The VCU Transfer Center will review which AP and IB exams and scores transfer to VCU, show you how to find out how dual enrollment courses may transfer, and ensure you know how to get those documents to VCU.

2 to 2:30 p.m.
First-Generation Families: Finding Your Success, University Student Commons, Richmond Salon I
What is a first-generation student? The formal definition is one whose parents did not complete a four-year college degree. In this interactive session, you will learn about the programs and resources available to support our first-generation students and their families on their path to success.
Afternoon opportunities

VCU Preview Day Shuttle

8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

VCU Preview Day Shuttle
Take the VCU Preview Day shuttle from the Welcome Center to Snead Hall and the University Student Commons. The shuttle runs from each location approximately every 15 minutes. Look for the signs!

Afternoon Tours

Noon to 3 p.m.
Residential Life and Housing Tours
Get ready for an exclusive tour that unveils the unique charm of living in a first-year residence hall. Brace yourself as we unveil the distinct room styles of Gladding Residence Center, Rhoads Hall, Brandt Hall, and West Grace South. It’s not just a tour; it’s an immersive experience where you’ll have the chance to engage with residents and RLH Staff members. Don’t limit yourself to just one hall — explore the magic of all our first-year residences! The last tour leaves at 3 p.m., so mark your calendars for a day filled with discovery and excitement.

Here are the addresses to each of the first-year residence halls:

Gladding Residence Center: 711 W. Main St.
Rhoads Hall: 710 W. Franklin St.

West Grace South: 835 W. Grace St.
Brandt Hall: 710 W. Franklin St.

11 a.m. to 2 p.m.
RecWell’s Cary Street Gym Tours, 101 S. Linden St.
Take a comprehensive guided tour of RecWell’s Cary Street Gym, featuring amenities such as two heated indoor pools, a whirlpool spa, a rock-climbing wall, an 18,000-square-foot fitness center, a four-court gymnasium, an indoor running track, racquetball courts, an indoor artificial turf multi-activity center and more. Tours will be hosted by RecWell staff members and will begin in the main lobby at the gym’s Linden Street entrance. Tours will take approximately 15 minutes, with the final tour of the day beginning at 1:45 p.m.

11 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.
Campus Tours, University Student Commons, Lobby
Take a walking tour of the Monroe Park Campus hosted by a student ambassador. Visit new facilities and see historical buildings now housing academic departments. Tours depart from the University Student Commons lobby approximately every 10 minutes. The last tour will depart at 2:15 p.m.

Noon to 2:30 p.m.
James Branch Cabell Library, Lobby
Join VCU Libraries staff on a 20-minute tour of Cabell Library, THE campus center for creative work and collaboration. Tours leave from just inside the main entrance, at the Fall Line bench. You’ll see what a modern academic library has to offer: room for private and group study, a makerspace with state-of-the-art equipment and software, a Starbucks café, and spaces to study, collaborate, discover, create and conduct research. Staff-led tours begin every half hour. Printed self-guided tours are also available from the library’s information desk.

Noon to 2 p.m.
VCU da Vinci Center for Innovation Shift Retail Lab Tour, 1235 W. Broad St.
Brought to you by the da Vinci Center for Innovation, the Shift Retail Lab serves VCU students and alumni by providing an important space for student entrepreneurs to test their ideas through sales and customer feedback. The products and services at Shift vary from those ready to buy to projects that need a little help. Shift provides an alternative type of retail where customers take an active part in developing ideas into successful products and services ready to go out to market. Exactly as the name implies, it is a lab.
